As a full-time student, you'll be immersed in a highly structured and demanding environment for the duration of the program. All full-time courses are scheduled at the Burnaby campus. The full-time program begins in September and ends in April, with any outstanding electives to be completed at your own pace. Full-time format Fall Term (Sep - Dec) Winter Term (Jan - Apr) Summer Term (May - Aug) 3 required core business courses 1 option course 1 or more elective courses (optional) Complete remaining electives (if necessary) You'll be working toward completion of your BBA degree through lectures, hands-on labs, and integrated e-learning, working independently and in teams, building knowledge through presentations and research. You'll be one of 100 students accepted into the program. Like yourself, everyone will have completed a BCIT business diploma program, and many will have work experience. Students come from many disciplines and fields of study, leading to a rich, dynamic, and varied learning environment. Your schedule will be busy, with 15 in-class hours per week, plus homework. In the computer labs, you'll have your own computer workstation to complete all assignments. You'll have regular, usually weekly, class assignments to complete for most courses, so it's important to manage your time well and perform consistently throughout the school year. Part-time option Once accepted into the BBA part-time program, you'll register and complete classes on a course-by-course basis. This option usually allows students to complete the program in 18-36 months while working. Course information and availability are listed below. Part-time students are responsible for preparing a suitable schedule for each term. Course offerings vary from term to term and are scheduled at the Burnaby campus. BCIT part-time courses operate on a first-come, first-served basis, and capacity is limited. Please refer to the BCIT Part-time Studies course finder for term-specific information.
